Re: Reda Ahmed Aoun
Case #: A205-802-101

Attn: ERO Officer Do Wissmueller

Sear Officer Wissmueller,

I represent Reda Aoun.

Mr. Aoun was taken into custody when he reported for his order of supervision meeting on February 13, 2025, and is in ICE custody at St. Clair County Jail.

The purpose of this letter is to advise you that Mr. Aoun is the beneficiary of an automatic stay removal and to seek his release from custody pending adjudication of his application for temporary protected status.

Mr. Aoun filed for temporary protected status on December 19, 2024 and that application remains pending. (TAB A, I-797 receipt notice)

8 CFR §244.5, “Temporary Treatment Benefits for Eligible Aliens”, states that:

Applicants for temporary protected status shall be afforded temporary treatment benefits upon filing an application for TPS which establishes prima facie eligibility for TPS benefits under section 244 of the immigration and nationality act and shall continue until terminated upon a final determination of alien's eligibility for TPS or 60 days after notice is published of termination of a state's designation for TPS (8 CFR §244.13).

Mr. Aoun is prima facie eligible for temporary protected status as he:

1. Is a national and citizen of Lebanon (TAB B, the Lebanese passport).
2. He filed his application for TPS during the registration period, between November 27, 2024 and May 27, 2026 (TAB A, receipt for filing).
3. Has continuously resided in the United States since October 16, 2024 (TAB C, Order of Supervision issued by USCE-Detroit with evidence of attendance on October 16, 2024 and employment authorization card's)
4. it is been physically present in the United States since November 27, 2024 (TAB B, expired Lebanese passport proving inability to travel outside of the United States and USICE-ERO-Detroit records showing that he has appeared, as ordered, for appointments on November 13, 2024 and February 13, 2025, and is now in ICE custody)
5. has never been arrested, charged or convicted of a felony, or a misdemeanor (TAB D, Michigan State police criminal history records showing the criminal record and FBI records, accessible by ICE as USCIS previously captured his fingerprints and biometrics.)

8 CFR 244.10(e)(1) states that an employment authorization document shall serve as evidence of temporary treatment benefits.

Concurrently with his application for temporary protected status, Mr. Aoun filed an application for employment authorization (TAB E, Receipt for I-765), which is currently pending at the Texas Service Center (TAB E). It is currently taking 3 months to process employment authorization applications at the Texas Service Center (TAB F, USCIS Processing Times)

In addition, Mr. Aoun is the beneficiary of an I-130 filed by his US citizen wife, pending since October 6, 2021 (TAB G, I-797 receipt for I-130 and marriage license). If approved, he will be eligible to file a motion to reopen his removal proceedings to seek relief that was not available at the time of his original hearing, adjustment of status. He is eligible for adjustment of status as he entered the United States legally (TAB H, B-2 visa stamp and entry stamp from passport and I-94).

While it is understood that USICE retains discretion in matters of detention, with Mr. Aoun availing himself of the temporary treatment benefits afforded him under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act and 8 CFR §244, he is entitled to a temporary stay of removal which, upon final decision on his application for TPS, will result in a stay of removal through at least May 27, 2026. In addition, he has no history of contact with law enforcement other than USICE, no history of arrests, charges or convictions for criminal activities, is married to a US citizen, has a US citizen stepson and a pending I-130 visa petition with eligibility to seek adjustment of status upon approval of that petition.

Under these circumstances, in concatenation with the facts that he has never missed an order of supervision appointment nor any other appointment or hearing scheduled by the Departments of Justice and Homeland Security, and that his continued, indefinite detention, at a cost of around $180 per night, is inefficient and a waste of government resources, especially in light of the fact that he does not pose a threat to the health safety or welfare of the American public nor the security of the nation, it is hereby respectfully requested that Mr. Aoun be released from detention and placed back on and order of supervision under the alternative to detention program.

My G-28 appearance form was filed through the EROfile online filing pilot program on February 14, 2025, attached hereto please find a copy thereof. (TAB I, G-28)

Thank you for your consideration of this request,

Sincerely yours,

Robert M. Birach,
Attorney for respondent

This notice, by itself, does not grant any immigration status or benefit, nor is it evidence that this case is still pending. However, if you are eligible, you may use this notice in conjunction with your facially expired Form I-766, Employment Authorization Document (EAD), as proof of an automatic extension of employment authorization and/or EAD, as applicable.

You are eligible for an automatic extension of your employment authorization and/or EAD if: (1) You have timely and properly filed to renew your current employment authorization and/or EAD; (2) Your EAD renewal request is under a category that is eligible for an automatic extension (see uscis.gov/eadautoextend for a list of eligible categories); (3) The category on your current EAD matches the "Class Requested" listed on this notice (If you are a Temporary Protected Status (TPS) beneficiary or applicant, your EAD and this notice must contain either the A12 or C19 category, but they do not need to match each other); and (4) Your EAD renewal application is still pending with USCIS when your current EAD expires.

If eligible, you may present this notice to an employer with your expired EAD (and Form I-94, Arrival/Departure Record, if applicable) for employment eligibility verification (Form I-9) purposes. If eligible, your automatic extension is for up to 540 days from the expiration date printed on the front of your EAD. If we deny your EAD renewal application, the automatic extension immediately ends, and you can no longer present this notice to your employer for Form I-9 purposes. If your EAD is also your Advance Parole document, the automatic extension does not apply to advance parole.

Title 8 –Aliens and Nationality

Chapter I –Department of Homeland Security

Subchapter B –Immigration Regulations

Part 244 –Temporary Protected Status for Nationals of Designated States

§ 244.10 Decision and appeal.

- (a) Temporary treatment benefits. USCIS will grant temporary treatment benefits to the applicant if the applicant establishes prima facie eligibility for Temporary Protected Status in accordance with 8 CFR 244.5.
- (b) Temporary Protected Status. Upon review of the evidence presented, USCIS may approve or deny the application for Temporary Protected Status in the exercise of discretion, consistent with the standards for eligibility in 8 CFR 244.2, 244.3, and 244.4.
- (c) Denial. The initial decision to deny Temporary Protected Status, a waiver of inadmissibility, or temporary treatment benefits shall be in writing served in person or by mail to the alien's most recent address provided to the Service and shall state the reason(s) for the denial. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the alien will be given written notice of his or her right to appeal. If an appeal is filed, the administrative record shall be forwarded to the USCIS AAO for review and decision, except as otherwise provided in this section.
 - (1) If the basis for the denial of the Temporary Protected Status constitutes a ground for deportability or inadmissibility which renders the alien ineligible for Temporary Protected Status under § 244.4 or inadmissible under § 244.3(c), the decision shall include a charging document which sets forth such ground(s).
 - (2) If such a charging document is issued, the alien shall not have the right to appeal the USCIS decision denying Temporary Protected Status as provided in 8 CFR 103.3. However, the decision will also apprise the alien of his or her right to a de novo determination of his or her eligibility for Temporary Protected Status in removal proceedings pursuant to section 240 of the Act and 8 CFR 1244.18.
- (d) Administrative appeal. The appellate decision will be served in accordance with 8 CFR 103.8. If the appeal is dismissed, the decision must state the reasons for dismissal.
 - (1) If the appeal is dismissed on appeal under 8 CFR 244.18(b), the decision shall also apprise the alien of his or her right to a de novo determination of eligibility for Temporary Protected Status in removal proceedings pursuant to section 240 of the Act and 8 CFR 1244.18.
 - (2) If the appeal is dismissed, USCIS may issue a charging document if no charging document is presently filed with the Immigration Court.
 - (3) If a charging document has previously been filed or is pending before the Immigration Court, either party may move to re-calendar the case after the administrative appeal is dismissed.
- (e) Grant of temporary treatment benefits.
 - (1) Temporary treatment benefits shall be evidenced by the issuance of an employment authorization document. The alien shall be given, in English and in the language of the designated foreign state or a language that the alien understands, a notice of the registration requirements for Temporary Protected Status and a notice of the following benefits:
 - (i) Temporary stay of deportation; and
 - (ii) Temporary employment authorization.
 - (2) Unless terminated under § 244.13, temporary treatment benefits shall remain in effect until a final decision has been made on the application for Temporary Protected Status.
- (f) Grant of temporary protected status.
 - (1) The decision to grant Temporary Protected Status shall be evidenced by the issuance of an alien registration document. For those aliens requesting employment authorization, the employment authorization document will act as alien registration.
 - (2) The alien shall be provided with a notice, in English and in the language of the designated foreign state or a language that the alien understands, of the following benefits:
 - (i) The alien shall not be deported while maintaining Temporary Protected Status;
 - (ii) Employment authorization;
 - (iii) The privilege to travel abroad with the prior consent of the director as provided in § 244.15;
 - (iv) For the purposes of adjustment of status under section 245 of the Act and change of status under section 248 of the Act, the alien is considered as being in, and maintaining, lawful status as a nonimmigrant while the alien maintains Temporary Protected Status.
 - (v) An alien eligible to apply for Temporary Protected Status under § 244.2(f)(2), who was prevented from filing a late application for registration because the regulations failed to provide him or her with this opportunity, will be considered to have been maintaining lawful status as a nonimmigrant until the benefit is granted.

- (3) The benefits contained in the notice are the only benefits the alien is entitled to under Temporary Protected Status.
- (4) Such notice shall also advise the alien of the following:
 - (i) The alien must remain eligible for Temporary Protected Status;
 - (ii) The alien must register annually with the district office or service center having jurisdiction over the alien's place of residence; and
 - (iii) The alien's failure to comply with paragraphs (f)(4) (i) or (ii) of this section will result in the withdrawal of Temporary Protected Status, including work authorization granted under this Program, and may result in the alien's deportation from the United States.
